

Haider A. H. Mullick

---

Haider Ali Hussein Mullick, Senior Fellow, Joint Special Operations University (JSOU), conducts research on U.S. Foreign Policy toward South Asia and Middle East. During his career, he has focused on US-Pakistan relations, and broader issues of security, socio-economics, and geopolitics of Pakistan, Afghanistan and South Asia.

Haider is also a Research Fellow at the Institute for Social Policy and Understanding (ISPU), Research Associate at the Pakistan Security Research Unit, University of Bradford, UK; and part of the Panel of Experts at Spearhead Research, Pakistan. Haider recently presented his ongoing research on Pakistan's national security policy at a conference organized jointly by JSOU and Carr Center for Human Rights, Harvard Kennedy School, and at the Brookings Institution, and U.S. Army's Directed Studies Office.

He has previously conducted research at the Brookings Institution's Foreign Policy Studies (U.S.-Pakistan Relations), Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars (Pakistan's Political Economy and Reviving Failed States), and the Hudson Institute's Center on Islam, Democracy and the Future of the Muslim World (Madrassa Education and Links to Islamist Militancy).

At present Haider is finishing a book-length monograph on Pakistan's security policy and counterinsurgency for the U.S. Joint Special Operations University; and a policy report on Pakistan's civil-military relations reform for ISPU.

Haider's editorials have appeared in Newsweek, The Washington Post, Foreign Policy Magazine, The Nation (Pakistan), The Daily Times, The News International, The Times of India, Indian Express, Gulf News, and Pakistan Link. His policy briefs/articles have appeared in the Yale Global, Georgetown Journal of International Affairs, Smith Richardson Foundation's Pakistan Report, Oxford Analytica, Pakistan Security Research Unit, University of Bradford's Policy Brief, Jane's Policy Brief, Woodrow Wilson Center Afghanistan Report, and Heritage Foundation's Backgrounder.

TV Appearances and Media Interviews: CNN International, Al Jazeera English Riz Khan Show, Voice of America and TIME magazine. For details visit www.haidermullick.com

Haider earned his B.A. in Economics from the Robert E. Cook Honors College at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, and his M.A. in Public Policy from the same university.

Haider was born and raised in Islamabad, Pakistan. He currently resides with his wife in Washington, DC and maintains strong links with his home country.